BARS AND STARS AS USUAL

DEFEATS CONVERSE AND UNCLE BRYN, BUT HAS SOME TROUBLE ABOUT DOING SO.

Big Crowd Views Decision of the Race—Several Winners Bid Up—Prince Eugene Lucky—Much Interest in the Derby.

Cincinnati, O., June 10.—E. R. Bradley's Bars and Stars, continuing his winning ways, placed another purse to his credit when he finished in advance of Converse and Uncle Bryn in the fourth race, for which he was an overwhelming choice at Latonia today. His margin was a narrow one and had the race been an eighth further it is doubtful if he would have landed a place, for he was quitting badly, with Converse and Uncle Bryn gaining in game fashion.

An unusually large crowd witnessed the sport this afternoon, ideal weather contributing to this more than the program, for the latter was somewhat ordinary with sprinting dashes predominating. Five of the races carried selling clauses and three of them were followed by runups. W. F. Taylor, a local man, did the bidding in each instance. He advanced Miss Declare, winner of the opening race, $400, and also bid Prince Eugene up the same amount. Both were in for $400 and both were retained with the customary owner's advance of $5, as was Tory Maid, which he bid up $200.

Small and evenly-balanced fields gave ample opportunity for speculations and the public fared well, managing to land with frequency on the winners.

Some of the contests were spirited and marked by close finishes. The victory of Prince Eugene was a fluky one for Star Actress was probably best, but the diminutive Garner lost his head and had the mare all over the track in an effort to secure clear going.

The running of the Latonia Derby next Saturday is absorbing great attention and indications are that the race will be witnessed by the greatest crowd that has ever passed through the gates of this old course. The field, according to a canvass among trainers, will consist of Royal H., Emerson Cochran, Leo Ray, Uncle Bryn, Rancher, Dortch and Tetan.

The latter will be started if the course is muddy. Ganz has been chosen to pilot Royal H. Taylor will be astride Emerson Cochran and Keogh will be intrusted with Leo Ray.

After the last race W. W. Darden's Dortch was worked a mile and a half in anticipation of his start in the Derby and ran the distance in 2:33⅗. Little Father accompanied him during the last seven-eighths.

Work-outs at Latonia this morning over a fast track were:

Faleada—Mile in 1:48.
Toynbee—Half mile in 51⅗.
Izzetbey—Three-quarters in 1:15.
John Reardon—Mile in 1:44.
Zali—Three-quarters in 1:16.
Lady Panchita—Three-eighths in 36⅗.
Cosmic—Three-eighths in 39.
Boots and Saddle—Half mile in 49⅗.
Wild Horse—Mile in 1:44⅖.
Grecian—Three-quarters in 1:17⅘.
Ethelda—Three-quarters in 1:20.
Stout Heart—Five-eighths in 1:04⅗.
Longwood—Three-quarters in 1:18⅗.
Palma—Five-eighths in 1:03.
Disillusion—Three-quarters in 1:17.
Billy Culbertson—Half mile in 48⅘.

Old Rosebud—Three-quarters in 1:23.
Water Blossom—Mile in 1:40⅘.
Rancher—Mile and a half in 2:40.

PROBABLE LATONIA DERBY STARTERS.

Latonia, Ky., June 10.—It now seems that trainer James Rowe has changed his mind and will not ship Regret here for the Derby. Had H. C. Hallenbeck has doubtlessly concluded to wait to meet Regret and the best of the western three-year-olds with The Finn until the Saratoga meeting arrives in August. While casterners look upon it as a long trip to make from New York to Latonia, it is but a trolley ride as compared to the trip the crack California three-year-olds of other times used to make at the last minute to run in the American Derby at Chicago.

It has been hinted at Latonia that Regret has not done very well since being shipped east, while as to The Finn, it is probable his trainer, Ed Heffner, is a bit doubtful as to how he would run at Latonia in such a race as the Derby, after doing all his present racing this season on a course at Belmont Park, which runs the reverse way to the track at Latonia. Even if these two stars are eliminated it will detract but little from the interest in the big race.

The now probable starters, their owners, weight to be carried and probable jockeys, are given in the table below:

Horse.	Owner.	Wt.	Jockey.
Royal H.	J. Livingston	122	C. Ganz
Emerson Cochran	R. L. Baker	122	W. Taylor
Manager Waite	T. C. McDowell	122	E. Martin
Leo Ray	J. T. Looney	122	T. McTaggart
Dortch	W. W. Darden	122	E. Pool
Little String	M. B. Gruber	122	A. Mott
Rancher	G. M. Hendrie	122	F. Keogh
Tetan	W. Perkins	122	J. McCabe
Ed Crump	J. W. Schorr	122	R. Goose
Uncle Bryn	Mrs. R. W. Walden	122	R. Small
Booker Bill	M. C. Moore	122	D. Stirling

The certain starters in this field are Royal H., Emerson Cochran, Little String, Leo Ray, Rancher, Tetan and Ed Crump, and there is a bare possibility that Pif Jr., Greville and Liberator might also go in the race.

It would appear now that Royal H. will go to the post the favorite, but support will be strong for Emerson Cochran, Rancher and Ed Crump, and in case Major McDowell has a starter, his representative will have a following, as he won this event once with Woodlake and made a strong bid for it again in 1912 with The Manager.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

N. S., Cincinnati, O. Yes, being in mutuels.

T. D. R., Milwaukee, Wis. Yes. It was a winning transaction.

G. F. S., Chicago. Kewessa ran unplaced in the race won by Back Bay, June 5, and was second choice in the betting at 9 to 5.

A. C. E., Minneapolis, Minn. Judge Himes did not win the American Derby. He did win the Kentucky Derby of 1903. McChesney was at one time owned by S. C. Hildreth.

A. R. P., San Francisco, Cal. Tony Koch is a brown gelding, eight years old, by St. Avonicus—Screenwell Lake. Lewiston was foaled in 1907, a bay gelding by Galveston—Libertina.

C. J. W., Columbus, O. Because it was moved up and run as the third instead of the sixth race, the race won by Royal Martyr at Belmont Park, June 9, was over at 2:37:12 p. m., Chicago time.

S. S. P., Chicago. If a wager had been made on Royal Martyr before the race was run it would have stood. If made subsequent to the running of the race it would probably be declared off, although not necessarily so.

JAMAICA'S FLATTERING OPENING DAY.

Great Assemblage Sees Addie M. Win the Excelsior Handicap from Stromboli and Short Grass.

New York, June 10.—For the first time in years racing was conducted at Jamaica today, marking the opening of a fourteen days' meeting. The racing was of high calibre and was viewed by an immense throng. The Excelsior Handicap, which featured the card, went to J. W. Messervy's Addie M., which defeated Stromboli by a safe margini. The Belmont gelding ruled favorite and went into the lead on the backstretch, but after turning for home Addie M., a forward contender all the way, moved up resolutely and, under mild urging, drew away. Short Grass was outpaced in the early running and moved up rapidly on the stretch turn, then tired. The race was worth $1,925 net.

The largest field that has been seen in New York in some time took part in the opener and Dinah Do proved the winner by a short margin.

An exciting finish attended the fourth race when Spearhead, Orlin Kripp and Amalfi finished close together. Amalfi, the odds-on favorite, was away slowly, but saved much ground and finished with a rush. Orlin Kripp met with interference, but for which he probably would have won.

August Belmont's Friar Rock accounted for the third race in easy fashion after going to the post at prohibitive odds. Roly proved best in the third race, with Runes, a distant trailer in the early running, second.

Paul Powers, for whom William Shields has several horses in charge, is an arrival from Washington.

Star Gaze pulled up lame after working this morning.

I. L. Howard was an arrival today from Montreal.

Lena Misha was thrown into the fence during the running of the Keene Memorial and had a tooth knocked out.

Yadopeep was claimed for $700 out of the first race by D. Douglas, who was represented in the race by Monmouth.

J. E. Madden has announced that he will not start his three-year-old Sam McMeekin in anything but races exclusively for three-year-olds.

The same scratch rule as was in vogue at Belmont Park will apply at Jamaica except that owners can scratch up to 1:30 p. m. instead of 11 a. m.

Word has been received here that trainer Jack Joyner will sail for New York in the fall from England bringing with him his own stable. He will arrive about October 18. He has one two-year-old which he had practically sold for $12,500, but as racing was called off there the following day the sale fell through.

Mrs. Payne Whitney has bought the three-year-old gelding Etruscan from H. P. Whitney and will make a jumper of him.

"Sandy" McNaughton has arrived at Jamaica from California with nine yearlings by Von Tromp.

Jamaica work-outs over a fast track today were:

Campeon—Half mile in 53.
Capra—Three-eighths in 38⅖.
Comely—Three-eighths in 38⅖.
Daingerfield—Five-eighths in 1:03.
Dartworth—Half mile in 49⅗.

Ten Point—Mile in 1:47.
Tudor Boy—Quarter mile in 23⅖.
Uncle Jimmie—Half mile in 50⅗.
Watertown—Three-quarters in 1:15.
Wanda Pitzer—Five-eighths in 1:03⅕.

The following were among the best work-outs at Belmont Park today:

Adams Express—Mile in 1:43⅖.

Coquette—Seven-eighths in 1:30⅗.
Doublet—Half mile in 49.
Figinny—Half mile in 48⅘.

Garbage—Half mile in 48.
High Horse—Five-eighths in 1:04⅗.
Kilcrea—Half mile in 49.
Lady Teresa—Mile and an eighth in 1:57.
Regret—Half mile in 57.

CONNAUGHT CUP FALLS TO BLACK BROOM.

Blue Bonnets Patronage Showing Steady Gain—Many Close Finishes—Small Talk of the Track.

Montreal, Que., June 10.—The Connaught Cup, one of the annual fixtures of the spring meeting at Blue Bonnets and the feature race of today's program, furnished a splendid contest, the winner turning up in A. Newell's Black Broom, which beat Fountain Fay a length after a long and hard drive. The winner was guided by Schuttinger, who rode a well-judged race. In the early racing Black Broom was a distant trailer, but wore the leaders down on the far turn and, when entering the homestretch, were they went wide, slipped through on the inside and this advantage placed him in front. Once he assumed the lead he never relinquished it. Considering his heavy impost of 126 pounds, Hearts of Oak showed a splendid performance. He was much used in forcing the fast early pace and in entering the homestretch he lost about a length by going wide.

The attendance showed a big increase over the preceding two days and it begins to seem as if the present meeting will be the most successful held at Blue Bonnets in recent years.

Driving finishes were the order during the afternoon, the winners in a majority of the races being hard ridden to score by small margins. The defeat of A. N. Akin in the second race resulted in his changing owners, F. J. Pons, who was represented in the race by Miss Waters, claiming him for $1,310.

James F. Johnson, owner of the Quincy Stable, has instructed Mike Daly to dispose of the horses he sent to Canada. The first of the lot changing hands was the two-year-old Milestone, which was transferred to R. J. Austin this morning. The sale was conditional on the stewards restoring the colt to good standing. Gwyn Tompkins will probably purchase the three-year-old Reliance.

Several stables left for Ottawa this morning. The consignment was made up of horses of the following owners: C. N. Freeman, E. Whalen, N. W. Burkhardt, F. Holman, Burton and Henry C. Timberlake, C. B. Marlman, E. Moore, W. F. Martin, E. Short, Z. Pyle, L. Haymaker and W. Scott.

E. J. Crawford shipped Pride of Greenway, Dr. Sullivan and Lillian Kripp to Hamilton yesterday to rest up until the opening of that meeting.

Capt. W. F. Presgrave has decided to divide his stable and send half of his string to Ottawa. The latter will be in charge of A. G. Weston, who will remain in Canada during the entire season. Captain Presgrave will take the remainder from here to Saratoga, but will return for the late fall meetings.

Clint Colby, of the firm of Smith, Colby and Jones, is dangerously ill at the Windsor Hotel here suffering from pneumonia.

Cliff Haven, winner of the seventh race yesterday, was bid up to $1,505 by J. Shannon. This was an advance of $500 over the entered price. The colt was retained.

Robert R. Davies, Jr., was a visitor at the Blue Bonnets track this afternoon.

The mutuels have taken well here and they promise to be a great success.

The volume of play yesterday was fifteen per cent better than on the opening day and there was a corresponding increase today.

The machines that will be operated at the Dorval Park fall meeting will be the kind that the National Cash Register Company has perfected. They print their own tickets, calculate instantaneously and indicate the odds on each horse directly after the machine is closed.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jefferson Livingston was a visitor at Belmont Park Tuesday.

Paul Lowder, who is coming to the front as a jockey, is a native of Dallas, Tex.

Former jockey M. Sheedy has taken charge of Johnny McTaggart's engagements for the present.

During the recent meeting at Dorval the system of having association valets was used with George Fraley in charge.

"Snapper" Garrison, one-time famous jockey, has entirely recovered from the broken shoulder sustained by a recent fall from a pony.

W. T. Anderson, who has been training his horses over the Gravesend track since he left Havre de Grace, has shipped his string to Jamaica. Among the lot are Star Gift, Ten Point and Yado Peep.

On last Tuesday at Belmont Park all records for the meeting in the way of scratches were beaten when only one was withdrawn during the day. This was F. B. Lemaire's Vaza, an entry in the second race.

Trainer James Rowe has announced that Regret will not be taken back to Kentucky to run in the Latonia Derby. The Whitney filly is not in the best of condition and it is not likely she will be seen under colors again until the Saratoga meeting in August.

The Suburban Handicap, which will be a part of the Empire City program this year, will be run over the Belmont Park track. Though not definitely decided, the race, which for years was the feature of the summer racing at Sheepshead Bay, probably will be the attraction for the opening day.

President John H. Madigin, through Acting Secretary E. W. Mills, of the Niagara Racing Association, has assured all horsemen in good standing that they will be provided with good stalls for the Fort Erie meeting that will open on July 3. Since the recent improvements were completed, Fort Erie now boasts of the most complete racing plant in Canada.

DINAH DO, after racing in closest pursuit of the pacemaker, responded gamely when called on in the final eighth and outstayed OUTLOOK in the closing strides. The latter displayed the most speed and, under a stronger rider, would have won. TINKLE BELL raced well and was on the outside of the leaders throughout. ELLA BRYSON closed a gap. LILY ORME was in the deep going throughout and quit. YADOPEEP and FORECAST were knocked back at the start. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Went to post at 3:10. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. ROLY, favored by his light impost, took the lead at once and, having raced AMBROSE into subjection, took a long lead while rounding the far turn and easily withstood RUNES' challenge. The latter stumbled at the start and dropped far out of forward contention in the early running and closed up gamely in the stretch, but was tiring in the closing strides. AMBROSE ran well for the first half and tired. ARMAMENT was outpaced all the way. The winner was entered for $900; no bid.

GRASP moved up gamely while rounding the turn, but could never get up and was not persevered with in the final eighth. WALLOON ran in improved form and easily held the others safe for third place. SOCONY was taken back after entering the stretch and ran poorly.

Went to post at 4:00. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won handily; second and third driving. ADDIE M. moved up rapidly on the backstretch and raced in close pursuit of the leader until straightened out in the stretch, where she disposed of her opposition and was going away under a drive at the end. STROMBOLI rushed into an early lead and set a fast pace, but tired under punishment in the stretch. SHORT GRASS began slowly and rushed into a forward position on the backstretch, but was tiring in the closing strides. TARTAR was shuffled back on the backstretch and closed up fast when clear. The last three were eased up in the final eighth.

IT WON!

I drew your attention for several weeks to a horse which would be cut loose, and above is the result. The name of the horse was filed with this paper and, I wish to add, the three former races, same finished outside of the money, and when I gave it, same proved an easy winner. I am sorry I cannot mention the name of the horse on account of the prominence of the connections. Tomorrow, Saturday, another horse will be cut loose, which I know all about. This horse, too, in former starts, has not been in the money, but I know tomorrow is the day.

Because many failed to live up to their agreements when I sent out the above winner, it is necessary to protect myself in this case, as I am under a big expense. The terms are $5 in advance, which must be telegraphed before 12 o'clock tomorrow and it guarantees you a winner or your subscription does not end. I understand that this horse, on account of previous form, is expected to be as good as 10 to 1. Remember, you are getting a square deal, and I must insist upon the same, as I pay for everything I get.

The reason no mention of the winner was made before this was until another of the same kind occurred, which is tomorrow.

Local callers will receive same by calling at my office Saturday morning after eleven o'clock. I deal in strictly inside information only.

CUT THIS AD OUT, AS IT WILL NOT APPEAR TOMORROW. ACT TODAY.

Those who subscribe today, wishing name of horse mailed, will receive same by special delivery.
